HOW TO FILE A WAGE CLAIM

➤ PLEASE DO NOT COMPLETE FORMS UNTIL YOU HAVE READ INSTRUCTIONS BELOW ◀

Fill out the forms on pages 1-7 and return them to this office.

The next page (ii) explains how we process claims. Please read and sign your name at the place provided and return it along with your claim forms. A copy of your completed wage claim form will be given to you if requested.

Page 1. The Wage Claim Form gives the Department information, details and history about your case. The form must be complete and exact. Type or print in ink (using pencil for addresses). If needed, use extra paper, write on one side only. PLEASE NOTE, you are the moving party and carry the initial burden of proof.

Page 2 Calculation Sheet. Fill out to the best of your ability.

Page 3 Statement of Claimant: In your own words, write a statement about your claim. See Item 9, below. You must sign and date this form before a Notary Public.

Page 4. Additional room for statement.

Page 5. The Assignment gives the Department of Labor & Workforce Development permission to take legal action and/or collect money on your behalf. Complete the blanks indicated in ink. You must sign and date this form before a Notary Public.

Pages 6/7. Worksheets to record the hours you worked each day and each week. Be as exact as you can.

* HINTS FOR FILLING OUT THESE FORMS *******

Please furnish the following:

1. The original of your personal time records;
2. A copy of your hiring agreement;
3. A copy of the company policy that supports your claim, if one exists;
4. Please tell us if your union has helped you with this problem;
5. The question "Occupation when claim occurred?" asks what your job description was at the time of the claim. For example: carpenter, truck driver, clerk, manager, etc.;
6. To claim return transportation, your employer must have furnished or financed your transportation to the place of work;
7. If the claim is for NSF checks, we must have the original NSF check. If you do not have the check, we must have the name of the bank, merchant, etc., who holds the check;
8. We must have a current mailing address for the employer, not just a city. It is sometimes hard for us to locate your employer without your help; and
9. If you believe your claim is complex, you may include a letter using one side per page of paper explaining the claim.

HOW WE PROCESS WAGE CLAIMS

Notice to the Employer: Claims are assigned to investigators on Friday of each week. Once assigned, a notice of claim and demand letter is sent to the employer. Twenty days are allowed for the employer to respond. Depending on the office, it may take many weeks before your claim letter is typed and mailed. Except for claims that are running out due to the Statute of Limitations, each claimant must wait their turn. Once the demand letter is sent, the claim is set for follow-up. Follow-up dates vary with investigator caseloads.

Informal Meetings: Both sides will be given a chance to explain their positions and support them with testimony, documents or witnesses. The Investigator will explain the laws and attempt to reach a settlement. If needed, extra time may be granted.

Court Action: If an employer will not pay, and if the Department believes the claim has merit, the case may be filed in court. It may take up to two (2) years to resolve a claim in court, depending on the caseloads of the Department of Law and the courts. If the wages and penalties are less than $20,000, the case may be filed in Small Claims Court. You must be willing to appear and testify in a Department meeting or in court. Failure to appear may result in the Department or the court ruling against you. Failure to keep the Department informed of your current mailing address and phone number might result in the closure of your claim. As the assignee of your claim, the Department is permitted to adjust the amount of your claim if it receives a settlement offer.

Penalties: The Department will request penalties if a claim is filed in court. Penalties or damages may be granted by the court.

Judgments: Winning in court results in a judgment. However, judgments are hard to collect. You may be asked to assist the Department in finding assets. Therefore, the Department may assign the judgment to you to collect.

How You Can Help: Please contact only the investigator in charge of your claim.

Please do not call for updates on your claim until after the 20-day response date. Cases are handled in the order they are filed. Besides wage claims, Wage & Hour must provide many types of support to the public. The Department is not required to accept all wage claims. Acceptance is based up on the cost to the state to enforce the claim, the strength of the proof supporting the claim and other factors. Filing a wage claim with the Department should be your last resort. In most cases, your claim will not be accepted until you make a personal demand for your wages.

Options: You may request reassignment of your claim. If the Department finds that an issue of public protection exists, your request to reassign your claim may be denied. You may not pursue an action through a lawyer, or on your own, until the Department reassigns the claim in writing. If your claim is reassigned, you may:

1. file a complaint in Small Claims Court if the amount is less than $10,000; or
2. hire a lawyer.

A REQUEST TO REASSIGN YOUR WAGE CLAIM MUST BE MADE BEFORE THE DEPARTMENT ACCEPTS A SETTLEMENT OFFER.

I certify that I have read or had the above explained to me and that I understand my rights and duties as outlined.

WAGE CLAIM QUESTIONS

It is our desire to make the best use of your time and ours.

Some situations prevent us from pursuing wage claims until or unless certain events have occurred.

This flowchart is designed to assist in determining if your claim can be filed and handled by the Department at this time.

You may need to discuss your claim with a Wage & Hour Administration Investigator first, to see if we can help you.

We may be unable to help you. You need to talk to an investigator before filling out the claim form.

If you are still employed, have you asked your employer for your wages?
OR
Have you quit and given at least three days notice prior to payday?
OR
Has it been at least three working days since you were terminated, laid off, etc.?

We cannot take a wage claim until after you have asked your employer for your wages, or until three days after you were terminated and after you have asked for your wages. Or, if you quit and gave at least three days notice before payday, we cannot take a claim until after that payday.

You may have a claim we can help you with.
If you are still employed, please contact our office at (907) 269-4900 to speak with an investigator.
If you have quit or were terminated, laid off, etc. please fill out the claim form as directed.

PRINT OR TYPE - FILL IN ALL BLANKS AS COMPLETELY AS POSSIBLE.
